1819

No. III

N. Beverley Tucker

Repository Citation
Tucker, N. Beverley, "No. III" (1819). Faculty Publications. 1749.
https://scholarship.law.wm.edu/facpubs/1749

Copyright © 1819 by the authors. This article is brought to you by the William & Mary Law School Scholarship Repository.
https://scholarship.law.wm.edu/facpubs
The People of Minor Territory

To the People of Minor Territory,

Fellow Citizens—In the face of the fact that the United States is a nation of free enterprise, labor, and industry, that the government of the United States is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people, that the Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land, and that the people have the right to elect their own representatives, I come to you in the name of the people of Minor Territory to express our appreciation of the contributions you have made to the growth and prosperity of this nation.

We are aware that the history of Minor Territory has been marked by a spirit of enterprise and initiative, and we are proud of the role you have played in the development of this land. We recognize that your commitment to hard work and dedication has been a cornerstone of our success.

We are also aware that the people of Minor Territory have faced challenges in the past, and we recognize the courage and resilience with which you have met these challenges. We are grateful for your contributions to our national heritage and express our appreciation for the sacrifices you have made.

We believe that the future belongs to those who are prepared to work hard, to compete, and to excel. We urge the people of Minor Territory to continue to strive for excellence and to take advantage of the opportunities that are available to you.

We are confident that the people of Minor Territory will continue to be a source of strength and inspiration to all who know you. We express our appreciation for your contributions to our nation and we wish you every success in your future endeavors.

Thank you for your dedication to the cause of freedom and progress.

Sincerely,

[Signature]